Title	“Hooked on Hoops”
Resources and Materials	Newspapers Online newspapers Web sites NCAA Chart sheet College Team T-shirts
Introduction	“Which college basketball team will win the NCAA championship?”
Vocabulary	Seeding/ranking teams
Activity	Using a newspaper or online newspaper, find the AP Top 25 Poll of college teams. With your NCAA chart sheet, select 16 teams to place in the chart. Number each line of the blocks, starting with number 1 and number 16 in the first two. Then move to the bottom block and place number 2 on the top line and 15 on the last line. Alternate between top and bottom blocks, with alternating pairs of numbers, 3 and 14, 4 and 13, 5 and 12, 6 and 11, 7 and 12, 8 and 9. Write the name of the team beside the number. The student will next decide which of the two teams will win in each pairing. These names are moved on to the next brackets. Continue on until one name remains as predicted NCAA champion. Next, have student research the city where the tournament will be held. Information of the city should be made into a brochure for their winning team including the graphics of the team’s mascot and the logo of the university. School colors could be used as background colors of the brochure.
Closure	Wearing items such as t-shirts, caps of the college, students will present their brochures to their classmates.
Evaluation	Grade on brochure and presentation. Keep sheets until after the NCAA tournament and award prizes to those that correctly predicted the winner.

At the beginning of the college basketball season, each college team dreams of winning the national championship. Using the AP Top 25 Poll, place sixteen teams in the NCAA Tournament chart below. You may research the teams on the Web or use the Sports Illustrated magazine to find additional information to help you. The teams are placed in brackets so that the number 1 team plays the lowest ranking team. The second highest team will play the next to bottom ranked team. Keep ranking and placing the teams in your chart until you have sixteen pairings. Select the NCAA winner! There will be prizes for those students that select the correct team.
